1. Far a-way and long a-go on the trail to the A-la-mo met a gal I used to know, rid-in' on a Cot-ton-Eyed Joe.

Cot-ton-Eyed Joe, Cot-ton-Eyed Joe, gim-me that gal, Cot-ton-Eyed Joe.

Cot-ton-Eyed Joe, Cot-ton-Eyed Joe, gim-me that gal, Cot-ton-Eyed Joe.

2. I said, "Miss, do you like to woo?" / She said, "Sir, with the likes of you."
I said, "Gal, you're a honey bee, / how'd you like to marry me."
Cotton-Eyed Joe, Cotton-Eyed Joe...
3. Dance I saw in a Texas town, / boys all swing the gals around.
I'll teach you to heel and toe, / just come off that Cotton-Eyed Joe.
Cotton-Eyed Joe, Cotton-Eyed Joe...
4. Cotton-Eyed Joe, you mean outlaw, / worst durn Hoss I ever saw, hold my fiddle and hold my bow, / I'm gonna dance that Cotton-Eyed Joe.
Cotton-Eyed Joe, Cotton-Eyed Joe...
