

Dakota Ghost-Dance Song

Wanagi-Wacipi Olowan (Song of the Spirit-Dance)

Traditional song of the Dakota (Sung by Tatanka-Ptečila (Short Bull), Pine Ridge, South Dakota)
From "The Indian's Book", songs and legends of the American Indians, recorded and edited by Natalie Curtis (1875-1921), first published 1907

adaption, arrangement and typesetting by Klaus Stezenbach ©2006 www.kstez.de

With spirit, in moderate time ♩ = 144

Em Am

Ya ha__ e hi__ ya, ya ha__ e hi ya,
So the__ fa - ther__ said, so he__ now com - mand - ed:

Em

he ya e yo e yo e e.
All on earth to sing, to sing now!

Em Am

He i yo e yo, he i yo e yo,
This__ he said,__ this__ he said,__

Em

e yo i ya he yo, e yo i ya he e tell a - far his mes - sage, tell a - far his mes - sage, yo.

Em

ho!