

The Tailor And The Mouse

unknown origin

Source: Digital Tradition

adaption, arrangement and typesetting by Klaus Stezenbach ©2006 www.kstetz.de

1. There was a tai - lor had a mouse, hi did - dle um come fee - da, they lived to - ge - ther in one house, hi did - dle um come fee - da.
Hi did - dle um come tin - trum tan - trum, through the town of Ram - sey,
hi did - dle um, come o - ver the lea, hi did - dle um come fee - da.

2. The tailor had a tall silk hat, hi diddle dum come feeda, he mouse he ate it, fancy that, hi diddle dum come feeda.
Hi diddle um, come tintrum tantrum, through the town of Ramsey,
hi diddle um, come over the lea, hi diddle um come feeda.
3. The tailor chased him over the lea, hi diddle dum come feeda, the last of that mouse he never did see, hi diddle dum come feeda.
Hi diddle um, come tintrum tantrum, through the town of Ramsey,
hi diddle um, come over the lea, hi diddle um come feeda.